SENATOR BEREUTER: Mr. President, why is it the Clerk won't receive votes?

PRESIDENT: Well, you can call for roll call. You're so short. All right.

SENATOR BEREUTER: I did not call for...

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the Call be raised.

SENATOR BEREUTER: But the Clerk was not receiving votes...

PRESIDENT: That's correct. Because we're short eight members, that's why. That's correct. There is a question here to have a, to raise the Call. Senator Bereuter.

SENATOR BEREUTER: A question of the Chair. I'm not clear as to why the Clerk was not taking votes. Would you explain that?

PRESIDENT: That's discretionary and we take them when we're quite close but when we don't have eight members here, we slide along. We don't get our work done. Nobody pays any attention to the work and you're quite a few short of your twenty five.
